

Index

- AACSB, 13, 66
- Aalto University, 158
- Accreditation, 49, 66, 69
- Acquisition of SEK University by IE University (2004), 159–160
- Acquisitions, 151–152
- Action and reflection, 142, 175
- Agent management, 47
- AGSM (Australia) 1999 and 2005, 157–158
- Alliance Manchester Business School, 156–157
- Alliances, 151–152
- Alumni relations, 62–63
- Anglo-American model, 93
- Apollo Education Group, 160
- Arden University, 161
- Arthur D Little Management Initiative in Boston (2003), 154–155, 160
- Articulation, 57
- Ashridge (UK) 2015, 154
- Association histories, 10
- Association of Asia-Pacific Business Schools (AAPBS), 10
- B2C industries, 134–135
- Babson College in Massachusetts, 126
- Behavioural complexity, 139
- Behavioural norms, 25
- BEM Bordeaux and Euromed become Kedge (2012), 154
- “Bologna Accord”, 58, 152
- Business educators, 167
- Business model
 - approaches, 34–36
 - central roles, 31
 - considerations, 31–34
 - types, 32–34
- Business School Industry, current state of, 9
 - association histories, 10
 - business model approaches, 34–36
 - business model considerations, 31–34
 - business school histories, 10
 - critical overviews and major studies, 14
 - “blind spots” and critical issues, 27
 - differences between business schools in regions of world, 20–23
 - GLRI, 28
 - issues and criticisms, 26–27
 - LBS, 25
 - social constructionist model of business school evolution, 15–19
 - strategic leadership processes, 24
- critical overviews prior to advent of rankings, 11–14
- journal articles and management education, 29

- value chain as mapping approach, 29–30
- Business school revenue orientation, 91
- cost per contact hour, 98
- income side of teaching by programme type, 99–103
- programme revenue by teaching hour, 101
- RDV, 103–108
- research vs. teaching, 95–96
- rigour vs. relevance, 95–96
- sources of funding, 94
- sources of revenue, 91–94
- teaching and revenue academics, 96–99
- teaching composite profile, 109
- teaching quality vs. revenue delivered, 108–110
- value-based strategic orientation, 94–95
- Business schools, 26, 52, 82, 151, 167, 168
- context and background, 152–153
- histories, 10
- managing and strategising portfolio, 117–118
- mergers, 153–156
 - business schools and universities with, 156–159
- mergers, acquisitions and alliances, 151–152
- model, 172
- purchased by private equity or corporate, 160–162
- purchasing University, 159–160
- and universities with business school mergers, 156–159
- value chain, 29, 30
- Business-oriented marketplace, 167
- Business-to-business sales process, 81
- Carnegie report (1959), 12
- Catchment zones, 119
- CEIBS, 33, 127, 155
- Ceram and ESC Lille become Skema (2009), 154
- Class Préparatoire*, 59
- “Clearing” process, 42
- Cognitive and behavioural dichotomies, 142, 175
- “Common currency” factor of value creation, 103–104, 108
- Contextual mastery, 138–139
- Continental business schools, 58–59
- Conversations, 81, 82
- Cornell University, 158
- Credit transfer, 57
- Crowdsourcing model, 35
- Custom executive education, 80
 - certifying participants and follow up, 89
 - finding clients, 80–84
 - house and feed participants, 84
 - providing space and technology, 85–86
 - teaching participants, 84–85
 - See also* Executive education value chain
- “Customer-oriented” perspective, 92
- Customised learning and development, 80
- Customised organisational development, 80

- Degree awarding powers (DAP), 55
- Demographic dynamics, 135–136
- Diplom-Kaufmann*, 152–153
- Direct grants, 92
- Disintermediation business model, 34
- Disruptive technology, 134–135
- Doctorandus*, 152–153
- Dominant logics, 27
- Double degree programmes. See Joint degree programmes
- Driving innovation or changing business model, 174–177
- Dual degree programmes. See Joint degree programmes
- Educated workforce, 92
- EFMD/HERC research conference, 28
- Elite business schools, 127, 173
 - European elite schools, 128
 - global, 127
 - M7, 127
 - managing alliance relationships, 130
 - revenue sources for elite institution, 129
 - scenarios, 117
 - stylised revenue model, 129
- Embanet, 53
- EMBA, 152–153
- Entrepreneurship, 158
- EQUIS accreditation, 66
- European elite schools, 128
- Executive education value chain, 74–75
 - certifying participants, 79
 - finding participants, 75–77
 - follow up, 79–80
 - house and feed participants, 77
- Postgraduate Post-experience Education, 75
 - providing space and technology, 78
 - teaching participants, 77–78
 - See also* MBA value chain
- Executive MBA (EMBA) value chain, 70, 171
 - finding students, 71–72
 - graduate and place students, 73–74
 - house and feed students, 72
 - Postgraduate Post-experience Education, 70
 - providing space and technology, 73
 - teaching students, 72–73
 - See also* MBA value chain
- Facilitators, 143
- Faculty
 - classifications, 49
 - composition, 52
- Focused innovation model, 33
- Ford and Carnegie Foundation Studies (1959), 11, 178
- Formal and informal learning, 144, 176
- Foundation Studies, 11, 12, 13
- Fractionalisation business model, 35
- Freemium business model, 34
- Funding
 - sources of, 94
 - universities, 118
- Fundraising, 94
- Future Learn, 54
- Futures Studies, 13

- Global economy, 167
- Global Leadership Responsibility Initiative (GLRI), 28
- Global University Systems (GUS), 152, 161
- Globalisation, 135, 167
- GLRI 50+ 20 project, 33
- GMASS, 67, 72
- “Golden age of business schools”, 12
- Google Adwords, 67
- Graduate Management Admissions Council (GMAC), 58

- HAAS/Berkley Dynamic Capabilities Model, 32
- Helsinki University of Technology, 158
- Henley Management College and Reading University 2008 (UK), 156
- Higher Education and Student Affairs (HESA), 50
- Higher education system, 152
- Horizontal development, 141
- Hult (US) 2015, 154
- Humboldt university model, 93

- Income side of teaching by programme type, 99–103
- Independent living, 60
- Individual and organisation, 141–142, 175
- Institute of Innovation Research (IoIR), 157
- Institute of Management Development (IMD), 153–154
- Institutional resources, 51

- Institutpour l’Etude des Methodes de Direction de l’Entreprise (IMEDE), 153–154
- Instructional practitioners, 50
- Intellectual and emotional experiences, 143, 176
- International Management Institute (IMI), 153–154
- International Master’s Program in Practising Management model (IMPM model), 32

- Joint degree programmes, 56
- Journal articles, 29
- Judgement, 139–140

- Keypath, 54
- Knowledge economy, 136–137

- Leadership development in VUCA World, 140–141
- Learning management system (LMS), 53
- Les Roches and Glion hospitality and business schools, 161
- London Business School (LBS), 25, 128
- Long-tail model, 35–36
- Lorange (Switzerland) 2016, 155
- Lorange Institute in Zurich. See CEIBS

- Magnificent Seven (M7), 127
- Management, 138
- “Management consulting” project-based model, 35
- Management development, 65, 142

- custom executive education, 80–86
 - executive education value chain, 74–80
 - executive MBA value chain, 70–74
 - MBA value chain, 65–70
 - OD activities, 86–89
- Management education, 29, 173
 - action and reflection, 142
 - cognitive and behavioural, 142
 - dilemmas for, 141
 - formal and informal learning, 144
 - individual and organisation, 141–142
 - intellectual and emotional experiences, 143
 - teaching and facilitation, 143
 - theory and practice, 143
- Manchester Business School (UK) 2004, 156–157
- “Map makers in earthquake zone”, 167
- Marketing, 43
- Massive Open Online Course (MOOCs), 56
- Master of Science in Management Studies (MSMS), 168
- MBA value chain, 65
 - finding students, 66–68
 - graduate and place students, 69–70
 - house and feed students, 68–69
 - Postgraduate Post-experience Education, 66
 - teaching students, 69
- MBAs, 152–153, 170, 171
 - 3D MBA, 32
 - ranking, 66
- Melbourne Business School (Australia) 2009, 157
- Mergers, 151–152
- Ministry of Foreign Trade and Economic Co-operation (MOFTEC), 155
- “Muscle memory”, 142
- Network model, 33–34
- New England Association Schools and Colleges (NEASC), 160
- New social contract, 137–138
- NIMBAS (2006), 155
- Observatory on Borderless Higher Education (OBHE), 43
- Online and social media marketing, 152
- Online learning, 53
- Open University blended learning model, 33
- Operating budgets, 124, 125
- Organisation development
 - activities (OD activities), 86
 - certifying participants and follow up, 89
 - finding clients, 87–88
 - house and feed client participants, 88
 - teaching client participants, 88–89
- Pace University in New York City, 126
- Paradoxes, 139
- Part-time evening MBA, 71
- Partner-based learning, 168
- Pattern recognizer, 140
- Per diem* model, 88

- Portfolio choices, 115
 - elite business schools, 127–130
 - managing and strategising
 - business school
 - portfolio, 117–118
 - private institutions, 123–127
 - publicly funded institutions, 118–123
- Post-secondary school
 - recruitment, 43
- Postgraduate Pre-experience Master's Education, 57
 - alumni relations, 62–63
 - finding students, 57–59
 - graduate and place students, 61–62
 - house and feed students, 60
 - Pre-Experience Master's Value Chain, 57
 - providing space and technology, 61
 - teaching students, 60–61
 - See also* Undergraduate management education
- Practice academics, 50
- Practice-based model, 33
- Pre-Experience Master's Value Chain, 57
- “Pressure points” of competition, 168
- Private business schools, 123, 124
- Private equity or corporate, business schools
 - purchased by, 160–162
- Private institutions, 123, 173–174
 - example revenue sources, 125–127
 - operating budgets, 124, 125
 - private business schools, 123, 124
 - scenarios, 117
- Product to service model, 35
- Publicly funded institutions, 118
 - catchment zones, 119
 - example revenue sources, 121
 - funding universities, 118
 - management education, 121
 - MOOC, 122
 - state institutions, 119–120
 - UCLA, 123
- Publicly funded scenarios, 117
- Publicly funded schools, 118, 119, 173
- “Publish or perish” reward system, 96
- Pure-play organisation
 - development
 - interventions, 86
- Quality Assurance Agency, 55
- R&D labs, 178
- Rankings, 66
- Razor/blade model, 34–35
- Recruitment process, 47
- Reims and Rouen become NEOMA (2013), 154
- Relevance, rigour vs., 95–96
- Research, teaching vs., 95–96
- Revenue academics, 96–99
- Revenue delivered view (RDV), 103, 108–110, 172–173
 - business schools, 105
 - “common currency” factor of value creation, 103–104
 - by faculty, 107
 - by program type, 106
 - rankings, 104
 - teaching, 103, 108
- Revenue implications and strategic groups, 171
 - business school model, 172

- driving innovation or changing business model, 174–177
 - publicly funded schools, 173
- Rigour, relevance vs., 95–96
- Rotman design thinking model, 32
- Scholarly academics, 50
- Scholarly practitioners, 50
- Self-efficacy, 140
- Social construct of conversation, 80
- Stanford, Yale and the Jain/Stopford Programme for global curriculum, 33
- Starkey's knowledge model, 33
- State funding, 91–92
- State institutions, 119–120
- Strategic groups, revenue implications and, 171–177
- Study abroad. See Articulation
- Stylised revenue model, 129
- Subscription business model, 35
- Super-agents, 47
- Teaching
 - academics, 96–99
 - and facilitation, 143, 175–176
 - composite profile, 109
 - quality, 108–110
 - research vs., 95–96
- Theory and practice, 143, 175
- 3 + 0 programmes, 56
- 3D MBA, 32
- Thunderbird and Arizona State University (US) 2014, 156
- TIAS (2006), 155
- Traditional faculty model, 50
- Twinning programmes, 56
- UK higher education providers (HEPs), 50
- UK-based RDI. See Arden University
- Undergraduate management education, 41, 43
 - agent usage for selected countries, 46
 - average agent commission rates for selected destination markets, 45
 - finding students, 41–43
 - graduate and place students, 55–57
 - house and feed students, 48–49
 - marketing, 43
 - percentage of students recruited through agents, 44
 - providing space and technology, 52–55
 - reported use of agents by first-year international students, 47
 - teaching students, 49–52
 - undergraduate education value chain, 42
 - use of agents, 43–48
 - See also* Postgraduate Pre-experience Master's Education
- Unicon, 94
- Universities and Colleges Admissions Service (UCAS), 41
- University College London (UCL), 48
- University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA), 123

- University of Manchester Institute of Science and Technology (UK) 2004, 156
- University of Melbourne (Australia) 2009, 157
- University of Reading (UK) 2008, 156
- University Partnership Programmes (UPP), 48
- Value chains, 169–171
 - of business school, 151
 - as mapping approach, 29–30
- Value proposition, 115, 169–171
 - competing business school priorities, 116
 - for consumer retail business, 115
- Value-based strategic orientation, 94–95
- Vertical development, 141
- Victoria University of Manchester (UK) 2004, 156
- VUCA World, 133, 174
 - basic questions, 144–146
 - dilemmas for management education, 141–144
 - leadership development in, 140–141
 - needed skills and capabilities in, 138
 - behavioural complexity, 139
 - contextual mastery, 138–139
 - judgement, 139–140
 - self-efficacy, 140
 - societal trends, 134
 - demographic dynamics, 135–136
 - disruptive technology, 134–135
 - globalisation, 135
 - knowledge economy, 136–137
 - new social contract, 137–138
- “White label” provision, 53, 54
- “Willingness-to-pay”, 93, 95, 118, 172