Index

Note: Page numbers followed by "n" indicate notes.

Accelerated adults, 16
"Accelerated and compressed" transition, 15
Aftercare designated housing, 114 housing arrangements, 113–114
  placement, 113
  policy, 109
  private-rented accommodation, 114
  as scaffolding, 103–104 support system, 108
  supported lodgings, 113–114
  system, 102, 109
Alternative access schemes, 148–149
Analytical eclecticism, 120
Art, 123–124
Authentic belonging, 20, 22, 53, 100–101

Back-to-education allowance, 115
Beneficence, 126
Black swans, 119*n*2
Bounded agency, 25
Bowlby's Attachment Theory, 29*n*6

Care
  placement, 4, 76
  system, 8, 10
  understanding transition from care as process in time, 95–96 Care leavers, 1, 21, 39, 45, 59, 67, 88, 100, 108, 110, 114, 116 in Ireland, 12 narratives, 99
  types, 16
Care transitions, 4–5 housing vulnerability and early family formation, 7–8 less education, unemployment, and public assistance, 5–6 Care-leaving, 14–15, 41, 95
  current approaches in leaving care literature, 21–24
  in Irish context, 21 literature, 104
  negotiating uncertainty, 102–104 policy landscape, 8 problem-focused account of, 97–98 process, 53
  social investment vs. social inclusion, 8–10
  striving for normal, 98–101
  theorizing, 104–107
  theory, 16
Case study methodology, 117
Central Applications Office (CAO), 46, 98, 146–148
Child and Family Agency in Ireland, 7
Child Care Act (1991), 10–12
Child Care Act (1996), 12
Child in care, 36, 41, 84
Children Act (1908), 12
Citizenship, 70–71
  immigration, 54*n*7, 151
Communicating care in working relationships, 90–93
Community assessment process (CAP), 6, 129
Confidentiality, 127
Criminal justice system, 17, 88

Critical theory of human development and social change, 28

Data analysis, 141–143
Data collection, 133–140
Deficit-focused narratives on young people, 97
Denigration, 29, 31–33, 86
Disability Access Route to Education scheme (DARE scheme), 148
Double-edged sword of freedom, 51–52, 62–65

Education, 54, 56, 75, 79, 102 background, 60–61
  being "normal", 67–70
  communicating care in working relationships, 90–93
  concerns and recognizing precarity, 54–56 contesting valued life, 56–57 control and communication, 65–67, 80–82 creating liminal space, 50–51
  double-edged sword of freedom, 51–52, 62–65
  educational exclusion, 86
  Ethan's mental health, 76
  Ethan's path through homelessness, 75–77 housing, 71–73
  Isaac's path through, 46–48
  Jennifer's struggles in, 59 life, 82 liminal time, 79–80 normal, 52, 82
  ongoing concerns and recognizing precarity, 70 precarious existence, 87–88
  rationing support as institutional misrecognition, 88–90
  time to mature and learn adulthood, 48–50, 61–62
  transitions, 3
  value of meaningful activities, 68 value of security, 61 Educational opportunities, 50
Educational participation, 3
Emerging adults, 16, 40
Emotional recognition, 29–30 emotional loops, 35
Employment transitions, 3
Empowering People in Care (EPIC), 129*n*9
Ending relationships, 139
Epistemology, 117–118

Feeling (mis)recognition, 33
Feeling adult, 62
Field Entrée, 128–129
Fieldwork, 128
Foster kids, 84
Further Education and Training (FET), 145, 147

Gatekeepers, 130*n*12, 131
Gatekeeping, 130–133
Generalized tendency, 103
Genuine care, 90–91
Grounded longitudinal analysis, 141–143
Grounded theory study, 120*n*3

Higher Education Access Route scheme (HEAR scheme), 148–149
Housing Assistance Payment (HAP), 14, 114–116

Immigration information, 151
Independent living programs (ILPs), 9
In-depth longitudinal interviewing, 122–123
Individual self-sufficiency, 27
Innovative methodological approaches, 110
Interviewing process, 135–139

Intuitive rationality, 25 Ireland
  aftercare policy, 55, 111 care leavers in, 12 child welfare system, 36 leaving care policies, 10–14 Irish education system, 145
  alternative access schemes, 148–149
  CAO, 147–148
  FET, 147
  Junior Cycle and Certificate, 145
  Leaving Certificate, 146
  Leaving Certificate Applied, 146–147
  Leaving Certificate Vocational Programme, 146
  PLC courses, 147
  Senior Cycle, 146
Irish Prison Service (IPS), 135
Irish welfare benefits, 115
  back-to-education allowance, 115
  HAP, 116
  job seeker's allowance, 115
  medical card, 116
  SUSI, 116

Job seeker's allowance, 115
Journaling, 123–124
Junior Certificate qualification, 86*n*1, 145
Junior Cycle and Certificate, 145

Leaving care (see Care-leaving) Leaving Cert (see Leaving Certificate)
Leaving Certificate, 45*n*2, 46*n*3, 55, 60, 98, 146
Leaving Certificate Applied, 146–147
Leaving Certificate Vocational Programme, 146
Life course agency, 25
Liminality, 95, 104
  in-between zone, 23
  instant adulthood, 64 neutral zone, 23
  theory, 23, 41, 105
  time to mature and learn adulthood, 48–50, 61–62
Local Areas, 131*n*13
Longitudinal design, 110–111

Material disadvantage, 5
Material support, 98
Meaning, co-construction of, 143
Medical card, 116
Mental health, 98
Methodology, 117 designing research, 117–128
  fieldwork, 128–144

Negative experiences, turning narrative away from focus on, 17–19
Negotiating uncertainty, 98, 102–104
  aftercare as scaffolding, 103–104
Non-maleficence, 126
Normal life, 67–68, 102
Normative social achievements, 21
Not engaged in education, employment, or training (NEET), 12, 98

Object-relations theory, 29*n*6

Photography, 123–124
PhotoVoice, 124
Planful competence, 24
Policy
  benefit rules, 71
  National Aftercare Policy for Alternative Care, 14 potential synergies of social investment and inclusion policies, 107–109 and practice recommendations, 107 punitive turn, 4
  social investment vs. social inclusion, 8–10
Positive identity development, 29
Post-Leaving Certificate (PLC), 45*n*2, 86*n*1, 145, 147
Power, 125, 130–133

Precarity, 37, 38, 95, 104 living with long-term uncertainty, 87–88 ongoing concerns and recognizing, 54–56 precariousness, 105
precaritized mind, 87
Primary education, 5
Private-rented accommodation, 114
Public assistance, 5–6
Purposive sampling, 130

Qualitative inquiry, 110
Qualitative longitudinal multi-case study, 118–122
Qualitative longitudinal research (QLR), 117
Qualitative longitudinal approach, 96

Recognition theory, 27–29, 42, 95, 100–105
critical theory of human development and social change, 28
Honneth's theory, 27 insult, 29, 32, 37
legal recognition, 30–31
love recognition, 29–30 misrecognition, 29, 31
rationing support as institutional misrecognition, 88–90 respect, 31, 33–34
social death, 31, 38
social denigration, 88
social side of self, 29
in society, 37–40
Recruitment, 129–133
Researcher impact, 139–140
Residential aftercare, 114
Retention, 134–135
Rigor, 143–144

Sampling, 129–133
Science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM), 147
Secondary completion rates, 3, 5
Self conscious emotions, 33–34
Self-sufficiency, 14
Senior Cycle, 146
Social change, critical theory of, 28
Social death, 31, 38
Social denigration, 88
Social exclusion, 5, 22
Social identity, 35
Social inclusion, 8–10
Social investment, 8–10 case study in social investment oriented aftercare, 10–14
potential synergies of social investment and inclusion policies, 107–109
Social networks, 1, 22–23
Social Recognition, 31–35
Social shame, 31
Social support functions, 23
Social system, 22, 101
Social theory, 21
Social welfare systems, 3
Social workers, 54, 78
Stamps, 151
Standard adulthood, 67, 96
Stigma type, 35
Striving for normal, 98–101
good life, 99–100 recognition, vulnerability, and authentic belonging, 100–101 stigma and shame, 99
Structure-agency debate, 24
Struggling parents, 16
Student Universal Support Ireland (SUSI), 14, 115–116
Supported communal housing, 114
Supported lodgings, 113–114

Tertiary education, 3 participation rates, 3
Tracking process, 110
Transition out of care, 22, 51, 100 critical view of structure and agency, 26
current approaches in leaving care literature, 21–24

deserving and undeserving poor, 35–37 foundation, 29–30
identifying gap(s) in current understandings, 21 integrating theoretical framework, 42–43 recognition, precarity, and liminality to analyze structure and agency in, 27 recognition in society, 37–40
recognition theory, 27–29
respecting lifeways, 31–35 respecting persons, 30–31
structure and agency in youth studies, 24–26
youth as liminal period, 40–42 Transition support services (TSS), 10
Transitioning process, 23
Transitions, 2, 23–24, 39
out of state care, 95
theory, 23
Tribal stigma, 35–36, 85, 99
Troubled and troubling, 16
Trustworthiness, 143–144

Uncertainty, 102
Unemployment, 5–6
United Kingdom (UK), 9

Value
of meaningful activities, 53–54, 85–86 of relationships, 52–53, 83–85 of security, 48, 61–67, 77–79, 88
Vulnerability, 37, 100–101, 125
Vulnerable populations, 37, 39

Welfare benefits, 4
state retrenchment, 3
Working relationships, communicating care in, 90–93

Young adults, 2, 48
Young men's transitions, 39
Young people, 4, 59–60, 68–69, 75, 87, 90, 96, 98, 100
Young women, 3, 66, 75
Youth leaving care experience periods, 7
as liminal period, 40–42 social policy, 4
in society, 105
structure and agency in youth studies, 24–26
transitions in transformation, 1–4